REPLY FROM WHO:

Dear

The two quotes in the BBC news item from WHO officials on the WHO not recommending homeopathy for the treatment of tuberculosis and diarrhoea are accurate, and were in response to questions about whether the WHO recommended the use of homeopathy for these conditions.

However, the WHO has not issued any formal statement on homeopathy.

Best wishes

Welcome to the Irish Society of Homeopaths

OUR ANNUAL GENERAL MEETING 3rd October 2009

Palliative care expert and Homeopath Ali Morrish is flying in to Dublin to give the keynote address to our AGM this year in Dublin on October 3rd.

End of Life Care has been a theme for the Society all year and a lot of progress has been made in our efforts to make homeopathy part of hospice care all around the country.
