Randi Backs Out of Challenge with Homeopath George Vithoukas

February 14, 2009 by: Robin Logan

<http://www.naturalnews.com/025627.html>

James Randi's stance on 18/10/08 according to his website:

We have been corresponding with Vithoukas, who has tried to get several venues for a test, but failed. I don't know the present status, but he is always being refused... We don't challenge anyone; they either respond by applying, or they are not in the line... Vithoukas is very difficult, he is always coming up with demands, and I feel it will not take place because he can't get his ducks in a row... But we're ALWAYS willing ...

Hope over peanut allergy 'cure'

20th February 2009

The concept of desensitising people to allergies has been successfully done with bee and wasp stings and pollen allergies, but this is the first time it has been achieved with a food-related allergy. (Like cures Like!) <http://news.bbc.co.uk/2/hi/health/7899383.stm>

Exclusive Interview: Look To The Stars Talks To Olivia Newton-John

17th February 2009

When I had cancer – in 1992 – I was lucky enough to have things to help me in body, mind, and spirit. I had meditation and yoga, I had homeopathy and acupuncture and all these alternative therapies that helped me get through the whole healing process, emotionally as well as physically. So I wanted to create a place on the hospital grounds that could offer that. That became part of the appeal, and I am very excited about that. <http://www.looktothestars.org/news/2067-exclusive-interview-look-to-the-stars-talks-to-olivia-newton-john>
